It is designed to help the individual or the team create the habits and lasting changes, by enabling them replace current unacceptable patterns that are costing their company sales with new ones that will eventually help them achieve their sales goals faster and more consistently. As budgets continue to shrink and the competition continues to increase, mastering the sales process the 'professional way' is a vital part of survival. People no longer buy a product or a service for its features; customers now want to know how that product or service will benefit them before they make a purchasing decision. To be successful in this environment, salespeople must be adept at both uncovering customer needs and demonstrating how they can fulfill those needs. Establishing value does not start with a prepared presentation, but with a search for the customer's real needs. Customers care more about solving their problems and meeting their objectives than they do about the range of services the Sales Person and his company has to offer. 'Sales Training Advantage for Results' will provide a very structured, formatted & step by step approach to help 'win & keep customers for life'! No gimmicks, no jargon, just emphasis on relationship building to enable you gain market advantage & get you results- a course on 100% building value & long lasting partnerships with customers! A must for anyone in Sales-right from the front-line to the CEO! Praises, Raves & Reviews "Gerard is an absolute STAR salesperson with huge doses of each of the attributes mentioned in this book. This amazingly structured book he has put together, with his long years of experience both on field as a sales professional, and as a coach & mentor for several sharp minds across the world will bring out the best in you. If you have bought this book, let me assure you, that it has all there is to learn about consultative selling! Just go get that sale!!!” Radhika Shastry (Former Managing Director), RCI-South Asia “Gerard Assey takes the sales person on a compelling journey in mastering the art of selling and salesmanship ...a must read for anyone aspiring to become a successful business executive” Mike Selvarajah, International Business Executive & Associate Director, BELL CANADA “Sales people like to learn from sales people & it's also a fact that there is none better to enlighten you on systems of achieving sales than Gerard Assey. He is providing value to MRF through training our sales force for 10+ years and the results speak for themselves. This book would serve as a ready reckoner to achieve excellence in selling through adopting the systems described by Gerard" V. Chacko Jacob, Assistant Manager-Learning & Development, MRF Ltd. "Gerard, once again, your book is brilliant! I especially value and recommend to all Sales Managers & Company Owners willing to improve their company performances, your straight-forward and common-sense approach towards Sales Management.” Renaud Guttinger, General Manager, JCL LOGISTICS INDONESIA This manual is one of a series of manuals for aviation and ground personnel who perform helicopter sling load missions ashore or aboard ship. Other manuals in this series are FM 4-20.197(FM 10-450-3)/MCRP 4-11.3E, VOL I/NWP 3-04.11/AFMAN (I) 11-223, VOL I/COMDTINST M13482.2B and FM 4-20.198/MCRP 4- 11.3E, VOL II/NWP 3-04.12/AFMAN (I) 11-223, VOL II/COMDTINST M13482.3B. These manuals are a coordinated effort of the US Army, US Marine Corps, US Navy, US Air Force, and US Coast Guard. All services participate in the sling load certification program begun by the Army in 1984. These manuals include standardized rigging procedures and other information from that program. Chapters 2 through 13 contain rigging procedures for dual-point loads which have been certified for sling load. Chapter 14 contains rigging procedures which have not been certified but have demonstrated acceptable static lift and flight characteristics during a flight test. Efforts were made to standardize ground crew and hookup procedures and terminology. Where service-unique requirements apply to an entire chapter or body of text, the service initials are at the beginning of the chapter or text. Otherwise the initials are at the end of the applicable sentence. Rigging equipment and procedures described in this manual may not be authorized for all aircraft or services because of equipment or service restrictions. This publication provides safety information and guidance to those involved in the certification, operation, and maintenance of high-performance former military aircraft to help assess and mitigate safety hazards and risk factors for the aircraft within the context provided by Title 49 United States Code (49 U.S.C.) and Title 14 Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR), and associated FAA policies. The Basic Bookshelf for Eyecare Professionals is a series that provides fundamental and advanced material with a clinical approach to clinicians and students. A special effort was made to include information needed for the certification exams in ophthalmic and optometric assisting, low vision, surgical assisting, opticianry, and contact lens examiners. The Certified Ophthalmic Medical Technologist Exam Review Manual is a review book designed for those preparing for the COMT® certification exam. This manual offers some 600 multiple-choice questions on every topic listed in the test criteria, including advanced levels of tonometry, visual fields, color vision, clinical optics, motility, photography, pharmacology, and general medical knowledge. Material that is unique to COMTs, such as microbiology and special instruments & techniques, are also covered. Explanatory answers, often with supporting illustrations and tables as well as the reference from which the material was obtained, are offered to round out your study experience. Suggested study texts are listed, along with an appendix on how to take a practical examination. Five graduate students at a large Midwestern university share an old house, a thirst for success, and a zest for life. They are about to be drawn into a darker side of corporate life that will ultimately involve them all in the world of industrial espionage. Kate Summers thinks she has found a way to read the genetic code faster than any current method. Brian O'Leary is selected to participate in the fine-tuning of a new type of computer. Life is good, and the summer break promises them all opportunity and adventure. In Washington an ambitious White House aide and a crusty senator create a new task force to combat corporate spying in the computer age. James Dougherty of the FBI and Sean Harrington of CIA are tapped to spearhead the new agency called FISA. Obtaining little help from their own agencies, they fall under the tutelage of William Timmons, retired military and ex-NSA official. At CSU a seemingly upstanding Japanese businessman notes an anomaly, and recruits an insider in the computer lab. The accidental discovery of a bug on their phone prods the students and their mentors into becoming part-time counter-espionage agents. As they run into dead ends and realize help is needed, they turn to an unlikely set of players and the game is on in earnest. Are you living your life in a state of joy, gratitude and thankfulness? Do you laugh a lot and feel like it's Christmas every day? If not, then this book is meant for you. Many of us instead live our lives feeling depressed, anxious and unhappy. We race home from work only to be overloaded with even more work around the house. Rather than enjoying our lives and interpersonal relationships, we tend to lose sight of what's really important and instead focus on acquiring material things and the numerous work tasks needed to get done. We may have forgotten how to play and enjoy life. The more debt we take on, the more pressured our lives become as well. Some of us are also angry inside, holding onto grudges and feeling like we have been victimized by another's thoughts, words and deeds. Feeling victimized, we may then lash out in anger at the people closest to us and do harm to those we love. Harnessing the Force both simplifies the wellness concepts and expands upon the spiritual content of my previous book, The Force is With You Always! It is loaded with wit and wisdom about living life in harmony with your true inner self. It connects you to your soul within in order to make beautiful soul music without. It will help you turn enemies into friends while living in harmony with nature and Spirit. Learning to live a healthy life in harmony with Spirit is well worth the pursuit.
